

Teacher Info:

Diane McElwain

Diane McElwain is a Studio 180 Design Certified Instructor.

For the past several years, Diane has been teaching Studio 180 Design classes and demonstrating Deb Tucker's tools and technique sheets to quilters of all ages. Diane has presented trunk shows which feature intricately constructed quilts using the Studio 180 Design tools and techniques such as the Lemoyne Star, the Hunter's Star, and the Wedge Star. Diane is a member of the Calico Hearts Quilt Guild from Ravenna, OH.

Diane holds a PhD in curriculum and instruction and has been an educator for 42 years. Her experience includes middle school classroom STEM instruction, professor at Kent State University, and an education specialist at the NASA Glenn Research Center. Diane is also an instructional coach.

Contact Diane for:

- Trunk Shows featuring quilts made with the Studio 180 tools and technique sheets
- Guild demonstrations, presentations, and discussions on each of the Studio 180 Tools
- One day and multiday, hands-on classes designed for the beginner to advanced quilter
- Workshops and retreat programs which provide opportunities to explore the Studio 180 Design patterns, tools, and technique sheets
